

Fees Policy (effective school year 2010-2011)
Burriss Laboratory School

Financial Responsibility:

Parents/guardians are responsible without limitation for any costs, fees, course fees, charges, expenses, or assessments levied on their student by Burriss Laboratory School, Ball State University, the Indiana Academy, or any other institution that now or may become affiliated with Ball State University. These costs, fees, charges or assessments include any amounts incurred by the student during the period of the student's attendance or enrollment at Burriss Laboratory School or the Indiana Academy or in any course offered by Ball State University in which the student can enroll as a Burriss student. These costs may include, but not limited to, student fees, tuition, meal charges, parking fees, traffic violations, book store charges, library fines and fees, student technology fees, health center fees, recreation fees, extracurricular activity fees, computer fees, and long distance telephone charges. EXCEPTION: Parents/guardians are NOT responsible for course/textbook rental fees at Burriss Laboratory School for students who qualify for free or reduced meals for that school year and request textbook assistance.

Fees:

1. Burriss Laboratory has two types of fees covered by this Fee Policy.
 - a. School Fees – student planner, locker, communication, technology, and instrument rental
 - b. Course Fees – fees associated with a course that are eligible for textbook assistance if a student qualifies (and requests) assistances. Please note: instrument rental is not a course fee. Parents may choose to provide their own instrument or rent a school owned instrument. Parents of students with free/reduced lunch status are expected to pay instrument rental if a school owned instrument rental is used.

Fee Billing:

1. The Bursar's office at Ball State University will bill and collect Burriss course and school fees.
 - a. All school fees for all grade levels (student planner, locker, communication, technology, and instrument rental) will be assessed during the second week of school and billed on an annual basis. School fees will be due on October 1.
 - b. Elementary course fees will be assessed during the 2nd week of school will be billed on an annual basis. Due on October 1.
 - c. Middle school course fees will be assessed during the 2nd week of school and will be billed for the year. Due on October 1.
 - d. High school course fees will be assessed during the second week of the 1st semester and the second week of the 2nd semester. Due on October 1 and March 1.
2. All fees not paid within 30 days of due date will be considered delinquent and Burriss Laboratory School will authorized collection procedures to be utilized by the Bursar's office. This could result in legal action and additional collection charges. Burriss Laboratory School will provide written notice when collection procedures have been authorized.
3. May Term fees will be assessed and billed by Burriss Laboratory School on an annual basis. Due date will be no later than April 15. Unpaid fees will be delinquent if not paid within one month of due date and will be submitted to the Bursar's office at Ball State University for collection. This could result in legal action and additional collection charges. Burriss Laboratory School will provide written notice when collection procedures have been authorized.
4. Burriss Laboratory School is responsible for answering all questions concerning all Burriss fees.

Unpaid Fees:

1. Fees that are unpaid by the date shown on the fee statement are considered delinquent.
2. Fees not paid within one month of the due date will be submitted to the Bursar's Office at Ball State University for collection. This can result in legal action and additional collection charges. Burriss Laboratory School will provide when written notice when collection procedures been authorized.
3. Parents/guardians may request to make fee payments in scheduled increments. Requests must be made to Burriss Laboratory School and approved by the principal or other designated person. All fees must be paid by the end of the current school year. A missed payment will result in the unpaid amount being submitted to the Bursar's Office at Ball State University for collection which may result in additional collection charges. Burriss Laboratory School will provide written notice when collection procedures have been authorized.

Withdrawing from school:

1. If fees are unpaid when a student withdraws, the fees will be adjusted according to a pro-rated schedule and will be due and payable. Collection procedures will be utilized to collect any unpaid fees. No payments will be requested for amounts of $10.00 or less.
2. If all fees have been paid when a student withdraws from school, the fees will be adjusted and refunded according to a pro-rated schedule. A check will be issued within two weeks to the parent/guardian. No refunds will be made for $10.00 or less.

3. No refunds will be made for $10.00 or less.

Class Changes (Drop/Add for any reason after regular drop/add periods):

1. Fees are assessed for elementary and middle school students for the year during the second week of school. Any class changes after the second week of the school year will result in NO additional fees being assessed or NO fees refunded.
2. Fees are assessed for high school students during the second week of each semester. Class changes after the date fees are assessed will result in NO additional fees being assessed or NO fees refunded.

Fees for Free/Reduced Lunch Status Students:

1. Annual school fees (student planner, technology, communication, locker, and instrumental rental) are not eligible for textbook (fee) assistance. These fees are due and payable for ALL students.
2. Instrument rental is not a required course fee. Parents may choose to provide an instrument for their child. Therefore instrument rental is not covered by textbook/fee assistance. Instrument rental is due and payable for ALL students.
3. Free/Reduced Lunch Status – Application Process - Course fees will not be assessed or billed to parents/guardians of student who qualify for textbook assistance because of their income. However, the parent must request textbook assistance when completing the application for free/reduced lunches.
4. Free/Reduced Lunch Status – Direct Certification Process - All public schools must complete a process to direct certify students for a free/reduced lunch status using available information available through a secure website at the Indiana Department of Education. If a student is direct certified, the parent/guardian will receive a letter from Burriss Laboratory School and will not be required to complete the annual application. These students automatically qualify for textbook, assistance. Course fees will not be assess or billed for students who are eligible because of this process.
