

L.A. PITTENGER STUDENT CENTER

Guidelines and Rules

Unaccompanied Minors: Ball State University's campus is generally not an appropriate environment for minors unless they are enrolled students or enrolled in a program specifically designed for children and appropriately supervised by adults with the proper training and credentials.

1. Burris students: are allowed access to the facility only during lunch time and for specific events/programs as authorized by Burris personnel. All students are to remain on the first floor in the dining area. Students will be asked to leave the building if found in other areas or in the building at non-designated times.
 - a. High School students: first time violators will be told to leave and the Burris administration will be notified for appropriate disciplinary action. Subsequent violations will result in a call to Ball State University Police.
 - b. All other Burris students: first time violators will be brought to the Student Center Administrative Office and the parent(s) will be notified to immediately pick up their child/children. Subsequent violations will result in a phone call to Ball State University Police and/or a call to Indiana Department of Child Services.
 - c. After school groups may be accompanied by a credentialed Burris Staff, Faculty or Volunteer. The group must come to the Student Center together, remain together, stay on the first floor in the dining area and leave as a group.
2. Academy students are allowed access to the facility provided their utilization does not prevent utilization by Ball State University students and as authorized by Academy administration.
 - a. If a problem occurs, student(s) will be asked to leave and reported to Academy administration for appropriate disciplinary action.
3. All other minors under the age of 18 (unless enrolled as a current BSU student with appropriate ID) must be accompanied by an adult.
 - a. First time violators will be asked to leave and informed they may not return without an adult.
 - b. Subsequent violations will be reported to Ball State University Police and/or Indiana Department of Child Services.
